Event - FOOD STALL REPORT
Date - 05-09-2024

The NSS (National Service Scheme) unit of G.B. Pant Memorial College organized a food stall with the aim of promoting healthy and traditional food options at an affordable price. The food stall featured two items: "Dalia ki Kuchdi" and "Koda ki Chai" both of which have significant health benefits and reflect the local and traditional cuisines. Each served at ₹10 per serving. This initiative attracted a large number of students and staff by offering traditional Indian foods at a nominal price. Additionally, the event served as a fundraiser for the NSS unit, allowing them to generate revenue for future activities and social causes. The food stall at G.B. Pant Memorial College was a successful event, achieving its dual purpose of promoting healthy, traditional foods and raising funds. The initiative not only brought awareness about nutritious eating habits but also demonstrated the effective organization and effort of the NSS unit in running a community-drive event. The overall profit of ₹1000 will contribute to the NSS's future endeavors.

Swachhata Hi Seva

Today, dated 18th September 2024 a meeting was organised by NSS Unit 1 and 2 under the chairmanship of A/c Vipin Sharma and Rajni Negi. A meeting centered around two key topics: 'Swachhata Hi Seva' and 'The Impact of E-waste on the Environment and Health'.

The Swachhata Hi Seva campaign, aligned with 10th anniversary of the 'Swachh Bharat Mission', promotes cleanliness as a collective responsibility. This year's theme 'Swachh Swachhata, Sanskar Swachhata' emphasizes cleanliness of nature and culture, encouraging public participants discussed decisions related to e-waste management, highlighting the critical health risks and environmental harm caused by improper disposal, such as soil and water contamination.

Moreover, a formal pledge for Swachhata was taken, where members were committed to maintaining cleanliness in their surroundings, supporting the ongoing cleanliness drive.

NSS REPORT - DAY 2 AND DAY 3

DAY : 19 Sep. 2024 To 20 Sep. 2024

On the second and third days of the NSS camp-program, significant effects were led by Mr. Vipin Saxena and Mrs. Ranju Balo Negi, focusing on the pressing issue of e-waste management. Under their leadership, all students actively participated in collecting e-waste from various sources. The students were informed about the dangers of e-waste, including the potential harm it poses to the environment and human health. To further the cause, the NSS team placed designated collection boxes in each classroom. The students were instructed to dispose of their electronic waste (E-waste) in these boxes responsibly.

In addition to this initiative, comprehensive information sessions were held to educate the students about the risks associated with e-waste and the importance of proper disposal and recycling. The objective was to raise awareness among the students, ensuring that they remain informed and responsible when it comes to managing electronic waste. The participation and enthusiasm of the students over these two days demonstrated their commitment to making the environment safer through effective e-waste management.

Cleanliness Drive In College Campus : Day 10 and 11

Dated : 22nd Sep. 2024 To 23rd Sep. 2024

Over the course of two days, the college campus was thoroughly cleaned with special focus on plastic waste, ensuring it was properly collected to reduce pollution and keep our environment clean. Along with campus cleaning, our team also extended efforts to nearby areas, spreading awareness about the importance of cleanliness. This initiative was guided by our program officers Dr. Vin Sharma and Miss Rani Bala, whose leadership motivated the students to work together efficiently. They emphasized that cleanliness is not just a responsibility of the NSS but of everyone.

Students were encouraged to maintain cleanliness in their own surroundings, wherever they live, and inspire others to do the same. The drive not only focused on physical cleaning but also aimed at fostering a sense of responsibility and awareness about hygiene and environmental protection in the broader community. This initiative proved to be a step towards creating a more sustainable and cleaner environment, with a lasting impact on both the campus and surroundings area. The active participation of students and the leadership of faculty members ensured the success of the drive, reinforcing the idea that cleanliness is a collective effort that everyone should contribute to.

Fifth Day of the Seven Days NIS Camp at G.O. Post Memorial College Rampur Buzurg - Day 5

Date: 18 Dec 2024

Yesterday's NIS camp activities were conducted under the guidance of our NIS Program Officers and were both disciplined and enriching. The day began with all the volunteers waking up early for morning exercises followed by a group breakfast. The responsibility for breakfast was handled by Group 4 (Yamuna), who managed their duties efficiently and saved every - one exceptionally well. The next assignment was an educational session, graced by the presence of Professor Krishan Kumar Negi from the Commerce Department. He enlightened us on the importance of time management and shared insights about the life and contributions of the former Prime Minister, the late Dr. Manmohan Singh. The session concluded with a two-minute silence in his honor.

After the session, we engaged in some outdoor games, but due to unfavorable weather conditions, we could not continue with other planned outdoor activities. However, we made productive use of the time by conducting a debate activity on evening, a cultural activity session was held with the theme 'Discussion Only Rise'. One participant from each group performed, showcasing their creativity and understanding of the topic. The day ended with a communal dinner, after which everyone returned to their hostels

4. Guest Lecture: A guest lecture was delivered by Mr. Abhishek Sharma from SBI, Rampur Buzurg. He provided valuable insights on topics like cyber crime, investments, mutual funds, recurring deposits and the stock market. The session was interactive with volunteers getting their doubts clarified by the resource person.

5. Evening Cultural Program: The day concluded with a cultural evening themed "Talk Tale Competition", where volunteers showcased their talents through performances. The participants enthusiastically engaged in singing, dancing, and other cultural activities, displaying their creativity and talent.

Appreciation and Encouragement: Mr. Vipin Sharma and Professor Ranju Bala Negi praised the volunteers for their dedication and participation. They encouraged the students to continue their efforts in such activities, emphasizing the importance of sports, awareness and cultural preservation. The fourth day ended on a high note, leaving both the volunteers and the audience inspired and motivated.

The day was a perfect blend of learning, teamwork, and cultural enrichment, making it a memorable experience for all participants.
