Proceedings

The meeting started on a welcome note with the convenor asking the students to convey their concerns and suggestions regarding the college. The students expressed concern regarding the conduct of post graduate classes. The chairman assured them that classes would be held in spite of the shortage of rooms and faculty members. It was brought to the notice of the chair that the benches in some classrooms were broken and the fans were not working. The chair assured them that the process of repair of fans was already in progress. The students conveyed to the chair their feeling of inadequacy as far as the seating capacity of the library is concerned. They also demanded new books in the library. The Principal assured them that the procurement process was already under way. The students pointed out the

The condition of the washrooms was not very hygienic. The authority agreed and promised action. It was decided that regular cleanliness campaigns would be held on campus.

The authority assured the house that the campus was now under the survey of digital CCTV cameras which would help in maintaining discipline, as would the hanging I cards.

The students were informed that the process of procurement of chemicals and equipment in the science laboratories was in progress.

The house was told that the process of selection of gender champions had been settled out.

The students were happy on account of setting up of a new canteen and also suggested the provision of an exhaust fan and better storage in the same. The house was informed that an AMC agreement had been signed to provide for a plumber and an electrician for the regular maintenance work on campus. The faculty members assured the house that they would put in their best efforts in spite of the fact that their workload was in multiples of the VEC specification. The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the chair.
